Colonel William Rhett House
58 Hasell Street
Charleston
Charleston County
South Carolina

Historical Data:

This house was in excellent condition in 1722 says Joseph Johnson, M. D. in his "Traditions of the Revolution".

Rhett was born in London in September 1666, came to Charleston in November 1694 and died here in June 1722.

Colonel Rhett is famous for his capture of the notorious pirate Stede Bonnet and his fellows, but that was only one incident in his illustrious service to the colony.
